OPPORTUNITIES
How can we help launch you, with your educational skills and passion for God's Kingdom, into initiatives around the world?

- Attend an Introduction to Missional Education weekend
- Take a vision trip to a current missional education site
- Go on a short-term trip with us
- Serve as a student services professional for a high school or university

TEACHERS ARE CONCERNED WITH THEIR STUDENTS' COGNITIVE, PHYSICAL, AND SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT.

Education is an avenue to develop the nations through the provision of quality, affordable education.
EDUCATION OPENS A PATHWAY FOR THE GOSPEL TO ADVANCE AMONG THE NATIONS

With EDU, you can advance God’s Kingdom using your passion for missions and professional training in education.

Our aim is to assist under-resourced communities around the world by providing educational services in:

- Providing strategic development for schools and English teaching companies
- Developing curriculum
- Training local and expat teachers
- Assessing students
- Evaluating schools
- Recruiting educators

With EDU, you can work with Navigator educational initiatives worldwide at all levels:

- Pre-school
- University
- K-12
- Private business

So whether you are a certified teacher of any grade from pre-K to 12, university professor, TESOL instructor, or other professional educator, we will seek to help you find the best fit for your skills and passion.

THESE POSITIONS ARE LOCATED IN:

- South Asia
- Africa
- Europe
- Middle East / North Africa

OPPORTUNITIES

- Pre-school teachers
- Curriculum developers
- Short- and long-term teacher trainers
- ESL teachers for universities and companies
- Student services professionals for high schools and universities
- K-12 teachers
- Principals and counselors

Interested in using your teaching skills and experience to multiply spiritual generations among the nations?

This weekend gives you the opportunity to explore your calling, meet with experienced Navigator teachers, and learn about specific opportunities to serve as a teacher and a Navigator disciplemaker around the world.
