To know Christ, make Him known, and help others do the same™

From the nations...to the nations

You've probably seen
-maybe even met-
some of the best and brightest that other countries send to our campuses.

Of the one million internationals who study in the U.S. each year, 75% are from countries in the 10/40 Window, some of the hardest-to-reach places in the world.

Wonder how to reach out to these international students?

We can help.

Ministering in all areas of life.

God can use you to impact a student in Jesus' name.

PHYSICAL

Welcome international students by helping them in practical ways: provide transport and home-cooked meals, assist with finding necessities or even language learning.

EMOTIONAL

Provide community, friendship, and a home away from home for students in the midst of a new culture.

SPIRITUAL

Introduce students to Jesus, often for the first time, and provide a safe place for their spiritual questions.
